IRISH UNIVERSITIES ACT, 1908.

A STATUTE FOR UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, CORK.

WHEREAS His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh was graciously pleased, in pursuance of the provisions of the Irish Universities Act, 1908, to constitute and found a new University having its seat in Dublin, and to direct that the said University should bear the name of the National University of Ireland.

AND WHEREAS by sub-section (3) of section 2 of the said Act, Queen's College, Cork, the name of which his said late Majesty was graciously pleased, in pursuance of the said sub-section, to alter to University College, Cork, is a constituent College of the said University.

AND WHEREAS by section 4 of the said Act the Statutes for the general government of the constituent Colleges of the said University were directed to be made in the first instance by the Dublin Commissioners appointed under the said Act, and after the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined, by the governing bodies of the said Constituent Colleges.

AND WHEREAS the said Dublin Commissioners under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, duly made a Statute for University College, Cork (to be cited as Statute I. of University College, Cork) given under their Common Seal, bearing date the 15th day of April, 1911.

AND WHEREAS the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined on the 31st day of July, 1911.

AND WHEREAS, We, the Governing Body of University College, Cork, did on the 18th day of November, 1912, by resolution, provisionally adopt the proposed amended Statute (to be cited as Statute III. of University College, Cork), set out in the Schedule hereof.

AND WHEREAS a copy of said proposed amended Statute was communicated on the 19th day of November, 1912, to the Academic Council of the said College

AND WHEREAS, We, the said Governing Body have considered any representations on the subject of said proposed Statute, made to us by the said Academic Council, within two months from the said 19th day of November, 1912, and have by a resolution adopted at our Meeting held this 29th day of November, 1912, by a majority of the Members of the said Governing Body now holding office confirmed the resolution to make the said proposed Statute without amendment.

AND WHEREAS a copy of the said proposed Statute has, at least seven days before the said 29th day of November, 1912, been sent to each Member of the Governing Body, to the Registrar of the National University of Ireland, and also to the Secretary of University College, Dublin, and to the Registrar of University College, Galway.
